SF SONGWRITER SEZ GIULIAN RELEASES HIGHLY ANTICIPATED DEBUT ALBUM

January 11, 2009 – San Francisco based singer-songwriter-guitarist Sez Giulian is scheduled to release her long-awaited debut album On to the Next this week after several years of high profile collaborations with Loöq Records (as heard on CBS' CS). Indie-music.com has praised her by saying, "Her voice...that's something you won't ever forget," and Listen.com says she "has the soul of a poet and the voice of an angel."

Giulian co-wrote and recorded several songs with Loöq artists Jondi & Spesh on their album The Answer. The CD was released internationally in June 2004 to critical acclaim. Sez has also performed for Bay Area crowds for the past several years at the Fillmore, Cafe du Nord, the Hotel Utah, Bottom of the Hill and many other venues.

The internet has always been a catalyst for Giulian's music, and her song "War Against Porn" climbed the MP3.com folk charts to #9 in September 2000. Sez has also been featured on WXPN (Philadelphia) and KALX (Berkeley).

Sez's elastic, smoky alto brings sharply crafted lyrics to life in On to the Next, a brilliant blues-and-jazz-infused indie collection of 14 intimate songs. Giulian also skillfully plays all of the instruments on the album, including viola, Autoharp and bass. Her vocals are often compared to Marianne Faithful, Norah Jones and Ani DiFranco.

The album will be available online and digitally through iTunes, Amazon, eMusic, Rhapsody and others. Visit SezG.com for a list of sales locations.
